which brings generations of Hawaiian families and their friends to Monterey to paddle and celebrate their heritage with the Ke Kai O'Uhane Outrigger Canoe Club of Monterey County. Paddling strong for over 20 years, the Ke Kai O'Uhane Club (translated: "the spirit of the sea") is a nonprofit organization whose members range from age 6 to age 70; their 18th annual race draws 23 teams from all over the West Coast to compete in races as long as 11 miles. The synchronization and power of the sport should show spectators why outrigger racers consider this as much a cultural art form as an athletic endeavor. [AA]
